When and where Merchandize shall be landed, and Custom paid.

XIV. And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament in the first Year of Queen Elizabeth, of famous Memory, directing when and where Merchandize shall be landed, and Customs paid, it is amongst divers other things enacted and ordained, That no Goods, Wares or Merchandize shall be shipped or laden aboard any Ship or Vessel, or landed or discharged out of or from any Ship or Vessel, but in or upon some such open Place, Key or Wharf, Places, Keys or Wharfs (except the Port of Hull) as her Highness, her Heirs and Successors should therefore assign and appoint by virtue of her Highness Commission or Commissions, within the Port of London, and in all Ports, Creeks, Havens or Roads, as in and by the said Act doth and may at large appear: And whereas, notwithstanding the aforesaid Act, there are some Ports, Creeks and Places where where Customers, Collectors and Comptrollers and Searchers, and their Servants, had then, time out of mind, been resident, to which no such Commissions were sent, nor Places, Keys, nor Wharfs appointed, as by the said Act was directed: And whereas also since that time, by reason of the alteration of Rivers, Streams, Channells and Sands, some Places then appointed are become unfit and useles, and others much more convenient and commodious, as well for Traffick and Commerce, as for Landing and Discharging, Lading and Shipping of Goods, Wares and Merchandize; It is Enacted and Ordained, and be it Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That the Kings Majesty may from time to time, by his Highness Commission or Commissions out of his Court of Exchequer, assign and appoint all such further Places, Ports, Members and Creeks, (except the Town of Hull) as shall be lawful for the landing and discharging, lading or shipping any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and to what ancient and Head Ports respectively such Places, Members or Creeks shall belong and appertain: And where any such Member, Creek, or Place shall be so (as aforesaid) appointed by virtue of the said Commission or Commissions, the Customers, Collector, Comptroller and Searcher of the Head Port, shall, by themselves, or their sufficient Deputy or Deputies, Servant or Servants, reside and inhabit, for the entering, clearing and passing, shipping and discharging of Ships, Goods and Merchandize; And by virtue of the aforesaid Commission or Commissions, may likewise set down and appoint the Extents, Bounds and Limits of every Port, Haven or Creek within his Majesties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, whereby the Extents, Limits and Privileges of every Port, Haven or Creek, may be ascertained and known: And it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whatsoever, to lade, or put, or cause to be laden or put off or from any Key, Wharf, or other Place on the Land into any Ship, Vessel, Lighter, Boat or Bottom, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever (fish taken by his Majesties Subjects, Sea-coal, Stone and Vessells only excepted) to be Transported into any place of the Parts beyond the Seas, or carried by Land into the Realm of Scotland; Or to take up, discharge and lay on Land, or cause, or procure to be taken up, discharged and laid on Land out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Vessel or Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck) any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever (fish taken by his Majesties Subjects, Vessells and Salt only excepted) to be brought from any of the Parts beyond the Seas, or by Land from the Realm of Scotland, by way of Merchandize, but only upon such open Place, Key or Wharf, Places, Keys or Wharfs, as his Majesty shall from time to time assign and appoint by virtue of such Commission and Commissions, as aforesaid, in his Majesties Port of London, and the Members and Liberties thereof, in any other Port, Place, Member or Creek within his Majesties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, without special sufferance and leave first had from the Commissioners and Officers of his Majesties Customs, upon the penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Goods, Wares and Merchandize.

XV. And forasmuch as it doth appear by daily experience, That there are great Practices and Combinations between the Importers and Owners of Goods and Merchandizes, and the Seizers and Informers, with design and intent to defraud the force of the Law, and his Majesty of his Duties and Customs, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares or Merchandize, shall be seized as forfeited, for or by reason of unlawful Importation or Exportation, into or out of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick, or any of the Ports, Members or Creeks thereunto belonging, or for not payment of any Customs or Subsidies now due, or hereafter to be due and payable to his Majesty, but by the Person or Persons

CAP. V.

An Act for giving Liberty to Buy and Export Leather and Skins Tanned or Dressed.

Whereas it is found by Experience, since the late strict Prohibition of the Exporting of Leather, that the Prices thereof, and consequently of Raw Hides, are very much abated, to the great discouragement of the Breed and Feeding of Cattle, and fall of the Rents and Value of Land: and yet that the Makers of Boots and Shoes, and other Wokers in Leather, have still, during this time, sold their Wares and Commodities very dear:

II. Be it Enacted by the Kings most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Twenty fifth day of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred sixty eight, it shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons, Native or Foreigner, to buy in open Fair or Market, and to Export and Transport into Scotland or Ireland, or any Foreign Parts beyond the Seas, all sorts of Leather, Sheep-skins or Calves.

Repealed as to Scotland by the Union Act. c. A.

After the 25 March 1668, all sorts of Leather may be Exported.

Calve-skins, Tanned, Tawed or Dressed; Any Lam, Statute of Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding: Paying for each Hundred weight of all sorts of Leather, Sheeps-skins and Calve-skins, containing One hundred and twelve pounds, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser quantity, the Sum of Twelve pence, and no more.

Paying 12 d.
for every Hundred weight.

III. It is hereby further Enacted by the Authority hereof, That this Act shall continue and be in force until the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand six hundred seventy five, and until the end of the first Session of Parliament then next ensuing, and no longer.

ance of this Act.

30 Car. 2. cap. 2.

Whereas by an Act of this present Parliament, Intituled, An Preamble.
Act against Importing of Cattle from Ireland, and other Parts beyond the Seas, and Fish taken by Foreigners, amongst other things, Provision was made against Importation of Cattle from Parts beyond the Seas: And it was thereby Enacted, That such Importation from and after the Second Day of February, which was in the Year One thousand six hundred sixty six, was a publick Nuisance, and should be so adjudged, deemed and taken to all Intents and Purposes; and that if any great Cattle, Sheep or Swine, or any Beef, Pork or Bacon, (except for the necessary Provision of the respective Ships or Vessels in which the same should be brought, not exposing the same to Sale) should from and after the said Second Day of February, by any wise whatsoever, be Imported or brought from beyond the Seas into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That then it should and might be lawful for any Constable, Tything-man, Headborough, Church-warden, or Overseers of the Poor, or any of them, within their respective Liberties, Parishes or Places, to take and seize the same, and keep the same during the space of Eight and forty Hours, in some publick or convenient Place where such Seizure should be made; within which time, if the Owner or Owners, or any for them or him, should make it appear unto some Justice of the Peace of the same County where the same should so be Seized, by the Oath of Two credible Witnesses, that the same were not Imported from Ireland, or from any other Place beyond the Seas not therein after excepted, after the said Second Day of February, then the same, upon the Warrant of such Justice of Peace, should be delivered without Delay; but in default of such Proof and Warrant, then the same to be forfeited; one half thereof to be disposed to the Use of the Poor of the Parish where the same shall be so found or seized, the other to be to his or their own Use that should so seize the same.

II. Notwithstanding which Act, and the good Provision thereby, great Number of Cattle, Sheep and Swine, and great Quantities of Beef, Pork and Bacon, have since the time limited by the said Act been Imported from Ireland, and other Places beyond the Seas, as well in Foreign as English Ships and Vessels, contrary to the good Intent of the said Act, and in Continuance of the said Nuisance, and in high Contempt of the Authority of Parliament: And divers Church-wardens, Constables, Tythingmen and Overseers of the Poor, living near the Sea, for their own private Lucre, having combined with the Owners of such Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork and Bacon, Imported, as aforesaid, or with their Agents, have colourably seized, and afterwards privately and fraudulently sold the same at very low and inconsiderable Rates,

Preamble continued.

For the Elimination therefore of the Authority of Parliament from such bold Assaults, and the Indemnifying as well of such Officers, who have faithfully endeavoured the Execution of the said Act (although they have not strictly pursued the same in every Circumstance) as of such other Person and Persons who have acted in their Aid and Assistance, and for the better and further Suppression of the said Abuse: Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same, That all and every Constable, Tythingman, Headborough, Churchwarden, and Overseer of the Poor, and every other Person or Persons who have acted in or concerning the Seizure, Keeping, Detaining or Disposing of any Cattle, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, Imported contrary to the said Act, after the said Second Day of February, shall be, and are hereby saved harmless, and indemnified in that behalf, against the Owner or Owners thereof, at the time of such Importation, their Executors and Administrators, and every other Person and Persons claiming from, by, or under their Gift, Grant, or other Disposition; and against all and every Person and Persons, to whom any fraudulent Sale hath been made after such Importation, as aforesaid, and their and every of their Executors and Administrators.

An Act to prevent the Planting of Tobacco in England, and Regulating the Plantation Trade.

Preamble.

Whereas the Sowing, Setting, Planting and Curing of Tobacco within divers Parts of the Kingdom of England, doth continue and increase, to the apparent Loss of his Majesties Customs, and the Discouragement of his Majesties Plantations in America, and great Prejudice of the Trade and Navigation of this Realm, and the Vent of its Commodities thither, notwithstanding an Act of Parliament made in the twelfth Year of his Majesties Reign that now is, for the Prevention thereof, Intituled, An Act for Prohibiting the Planting, Setting, or Sowing of Tobacco in England <sup>12 Car. 2. cap. 34.</sup> and Ireland; And also one other Act of this present Parliament, made in the fifteenth Year of his said Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade. <sup>15 Car. 2. cap. 7.</sup>

Justices of the Peace are to command all Constables, &c. to make a Presentment to them of what Tobacco is planted, and upon whose Land.

II. And forasmuch as the Remedies and Provisions by those Laws are found not large enough to obviate and prevent the Planting thereof, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred seventy and one, all Justices of the Peace, within their several Limits and Jurisdictions, shall and do, a Month before every general Quarter-Sessions to be holden for their respective Counties, issue forth their Warrants to all High-Constables, Petty-Constables, and Tythingmen, within their several Limits, thereby requiring the said High-Constables, Petty-Constables, and Tythingmen, and every of them, to make diligent Search and Inquisition, what Tobacco is then sown, set, planted, growing, curing, cured or made, within their several and respective Limits and Jurisdictions, and by whom; And to make a true and lawful Presentment in Writing upon Oath, at the next general Quarter-Sessions to be holden for such County, of the Names of all such Persons as have sown, set, planted, cured or made any Tobacco, and what the full Quantity of Land is, or was sown, set or planted therewith, and who are the immediate Tenant or Tenants, or present Occupiers of the Land so sown, set or planted, who are and shall be deemed Planters thereof, to all Intents and Purposes.

Which Presentment being filed, shall be a sufficient Conviction;

Except upon Notice, it shall be traversed.

III. Which said Presentment upon Oath, shall be received and filed by the Clerk of the Peace of the said County, in open Sessions; and after such Receipt and filing, shall be a sufficient Conviction in Law, to all Intents and Purposes, of all such Persons as shall be so presented for the sowing, setting, planting, improving to grow, making or curing Tobacco, either in Seed, Plant, Leaf, or otherwise, contrary to the said recited Acts, or either of them; unless such Person or Persons so presented (having Notice given to him or them of such Presentment made, by the Delivery of a Copy of such Presentment to him or them, or by leaving a Copy of such Presentment at his or their Dwelling-house or Houses, or usual Place of Abode, in the Presence of one or more credible Witnesses, ten Days at the least before the next Quarter-Sessions) shall at the Quarter-Sessions next after such Notice shall be given to him or them, traverse such Presentment, and find sufficient Sureties for the Prosecuting and Traversing such Traverse at the Quarter-Sessions to be holden for the said County, next after such Traverse shall be entered or made.

IV. And it is hereby further Enacted, That all Constables, Tythingmen, Bayliffs, and other publick Officers, shall and do, within their respective Jurisdictions, from time to time, as often as Occasion shall require, within fourteen Days after Warrant from two or more of the Justices of the Peace within such County, Town, City or Place to them, calling to their Assistance such Person or Persons as they and every of them shall find convenient and necessary, pluck up, burn, consume, tear in pieces, and utterly destroy all Tobacco-Seed, Plant, Leaf planted, sowed, or growing in any Field, Earth, or Ground.

Power given to all Officers, &c. to pull up, &c. and destroy all the Plants, &c.

V. And if any such Tobacco shall be suffered or permitted to grow, or be unconsumed in Seed, Plant or Leaf, in any Township, Tything, Parish, Hamlet or Place, by the space of fourteen Days after the Receipt of such Warrant or Warrants, by the said Constables, Tythingmen, Bailiffs, or other publick Officers of the respective Townships, Tythings, Parishes or Hamlets, as aforesaid, that then such Constables, Tythingmen, Bailiffs, or other publick Officers respectively, shall, for every such Offence, forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings for every Rod, Perch or Pole of Ground so let, planted, or sowed with Tobacco, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser Quantity of Ground, one Moiety thereof to the Kings Majesty, and the other Moiety thereof to him or them that shall sue for the same, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster.

The Penalty of Officers not doing their Duty in destroying or it.

VI. And it is hereby further Enacted, That in case any Person or Persons shall refuse or neglect to aid or assist (being thereunto required) any Constable, Bailiff, or other publick Officer, in the due Execution of this Act, That every such Person or Persons, for every such Offence, upon Conviction thereof made before two Justices of the Peace of the said County where such Offence shall be committed, shall forfeit and pay the Sum of five Shillings, to be levied by Warrant from the said Justices, by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods; And in case no Distress can be found, then every such Offender shall be committed to the common Goal of the said County, there to remain for the space of one Week, without Bail or Mainprize.

VIII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Action, Plaint, Suit, or Information, shall be commenced or prosecuted against any Person or Persons, for what he or they shall do in pursuance or Execution of this Act, or either of the recited Acts, such Person or Persons so sued in any Court whatsoever, shall or may plead the General Issue, Not Guilty, and upon any Issue joyned, may give this Act, or the said recited Acts, or either of them, and the Special Matter in Evidence; And if the Plaintiff or Prosecutor shall become Nonsuit, or forbear further Prosecution, or suffer Discontinuance, or if a Verdict shall pass against him, the Defendant or Defendants shall recover their Costs, for which they shall have the like Remedy, as in case where Costs are given by Law to the Defendants.

only, so as the Quantity so Planted exceed not one half of one Pole in any one Place or Garden.

X. And whereas by one Act of Parliament in the Fifteenth Year of his Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, It is Declared, That inasmuch as his Majesties Plantations beyond the Seas are inhabited with his Subjects of England, for the maintaining a better Correspondency betwixt them, and keeping them in a firmer Dependance upon it, and rendering them yet more beneficial and advantageous unto it, in the further Employment and Increase of English Shipping and Seamen, Vent of Woollen and other Manufactures, rendering the Navigation to and from the same more safe and cheap, and making this Kingdom a Staple, not only of the Commodities of those Plantations, but also of the Commodities of other Countries, for the supplying them (it being the Usage of other Nations to keep their Plantation-Trades to themselves) It was therefore Enacted, That no Goods or Commodities of Europe shall be carried into any the Plantations of Asia, Africa, or America, but what shall, bona fide, be laden and shipped in England, and in English-built Ships, or Ships made free and Navigated with English, according to an Act of Parliament on that behalf: And that no Officer of the Customs in England or Wales shall give any Warrant, or suffer any Sugar, Tobacco, and other Plantation-Goods therein particularly named, to be carried into any other Country or Place whatsoever, until they have been first bona fide unladed in England, as by the said Act doth more at large appear.

XI. Notwithstanding which, some Persons taking advantage of the not mentioning the Repealing of the word Ireland, in one Clause in an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Year of his Majesties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Encouraging and Increase of Shipping and Navigation; where Bonds are directed to be taken for all Ships that shall lade any Sugar, or other Commodities therein particularly mentioned, in any of the said Plantations, That the same Commodities shall be by the said Ship brought to some Port of England, Ireland, Wales or Town or Port of Berwick, and shall there unload, and put the same on Hoze, the said Persons having either refused to give Bond for the return of their Ships in such case to England, Wales, or Town or Port of Berwick only, or having given such Bonds, have nevertheless gone with their Ships to Ireland; By which means (although this Kingdom hath, and doth daily suffer a great Prejudice by the transporting great Numbers of the People thereof to the said Plantations, for the Peopling of them) yet that the Trade of them would thereby in a great measure be diverted from hence, and carried elsewhere, his Majesties Customs, and other Revenues much lessened, and this Kingdom not continue a Staple of the said Commodities of the said Plantations, nor that vent for the future, of the Aftual, and other Native Commodities of this Kingdom: Be it therefore Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the word Ireland shall from and after the Twenty fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred and seventy one, be left out of all such Bonds which shall be taken for any Ship or Vessel which shall set sail out of, or from England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, for any English Plantation in America, Asia, Africa; And that in case the said Ship or Vessel shall load any of the said Commodities at any of the said English Plantations, That the said Commodities shall be by the said Ship or Vessel brought to some Port of England, or Wales, or to the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and shall there unload and put on Hoze the same (the danger of the Seas only excepted) and in like manner for all Ships coming from any other Port or Place, to any of the aforesaid Plantations, who by the aforesaid Act for encouraging and increase of Shipping, are permitted to trade there; That from and after the Nine and twentieth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred seventy

Several Clauses in an Act, Intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of the Greenland and Eastland Trades, and for the better securing the Plantation-Trade.

The Reasons for this Act.

FORasmuch as the Whale fishing is a very considerable and profitable Trade, giving Employments to great Numbers of Seamen and Shipping; And whereas neighbouring Nations do yearly make great Advantage thereby, not only supplying themselves with that sort of Oyl and Fins, but vending into other Parts great Quantities thereof, and particularly into this Kingdom, where the said Trade is in a manner quite decayed and lost: For Remedy thereof, and Incouragement of such as shall be willing to employ themselves and their Estates in this Trade; Be it Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Loyds Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for all his Majesties Subjects of this his Realm of England and Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and for every other Person or Persons of what Nation soever, residing and inhabiting here, during the time of such their Residence, freely to Trade into and from Greenland, and those Seas, and there to take Whales, and all other sorts of Fish, and to Import into this Kingdom all sorts of Oyl, Blubber and Fins thereof, and to use and exercise all other Trade to and from Greenland, and those Parts. And for the further Encouraging of the said Trade, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons, Native or Foreigner, to Import Crain oyl, or Blubber of Greenland, and Parts adjacent, and those Seas, or of New-found-land, or of any other his Majesties Colonies and Plantations, made of Fish, or of any other Creature living in the Seas, and Whale-fins caught in any Ships or Vessels truly and properly belonging to England, or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and Imported in such Ships, without paying any Custom or other Duty for the same: And for the Tun of such Oyl taken by any Shipping belonging to any of his Majesties Colonies and Plantations, and Imported in such Shipping, there shall be paid the Sum of Six Shillings; and for every Tun of Whale-fins taken and Imported in such Shipping, the Sum of Fifty Persons residing here may trade to Greenland, Newfoundland, &c.

And in regard there are at present great want of Harpiniers and Seamen skilled and exercised in the Trade of Whale-fishing, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Ship or Vessel truly belonging to England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and whereof the Master shall be an Englishman, and inhabiting within the Places aforesaid, from and after the first Day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred seventy and three, and until the five and twentieth of March, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand six hundred eighty and three, employed for the Catching of Whales during such Voyage, to be Navigated with one Moiety of the Harpiniers, and the one Moiety of the rest of the Harpiniers only English, and yet to pay no further or other Custom for the Oyl, Blubber, or Fins Caught and Imported in such Ship or Vessel, than if such Ship or Vessel had been Navigated with Three Fourth of the Harpiniers English; Any Law, Statute, or Usage to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

II. And whereas in the first Year of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary there passed an Act, Intituled, An Act for the better Preventing the Exportation of Wooll, and Incouraging the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, which Act was continued by an Act made in the fourth and fifth Years of King William and Queen Mary, Intituled, An Act for Reviving, Continuing and Explaining several Laws therein mentioned, which are Expired and near Expiring, and will now soon expire.

III. And whereas for preventing the said Mischiefs, it is necessary the said Act should be Continued, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, and every Clause, Matter and Thing therein contained, (except what is hereafter otherwise altered, explained or repealed) shall continue and remain in full force, as if the same were herein and hereby particularly recited and mentioned.

An Act for the Exporting Watches, Sword-Hilts, and other Manufactures of Silver.

Preamble,

Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Seventh and Eighth Years of his present Majesty King William the Third, Intituled, An Act to Encourage the bringing Plate into the Mint to be Coined, and for the further Remedying the ill State of the Coin of this Kingdom, It is amongst other things so Enacted, That after the Last day of March then next ensuing, no Wrought Plate of this Kingdom can be shipped off, under the great Penalties in the said Act contained, whereby no Home-wrought manufactured Plate, though though never so beneficial to the Artificers and Trade of this Kingdom, is permitted to be Exported; which was at that time a good and wholesome Law, and tended to the Benefit of the Kingdom, by keeping Bullion at home to be coined: Now soasmuch as by a subsequent Act made in the Eighth and Ninth Year of the Reign of his said Majesty, Intituled, An Act for the Incuraging and Bringing in of Wrought Plate to be Coined, It is therein Enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thousand six hundred ninety seven, no Goldsmith, Silversmith, or other Person whatsoever, shall work, make, or cause to be wrought or made, any Silver Vessel, Plate or Manufacture of Silver, less in fineness than that of Eleven Ounces and Ten penny-weight of fine Silver in every Pound Troy, nor put to sale the same, until it be marked, as in the said Act is directed; whereby no Profit can arise to any Person who shall export such Plate as hath been or shall be made pursuant to that Act, by losing the charge of the fashion in melting down the same, and selling the Silver abroad, the principal thing aimed at to be prevented by the first recited Act; but on the contrary, a great Benefit may accrue to many Artificers, and to the Kingdom in general, by giving liberty to export Watches, Sword-hilts, Wrought Plate, and several other Silver Manufactures made within this Kingdom, being of the Fineness prescribed in the said last recited Act: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand six hundred ninety eight, it shall and may be lawful to export such Watches, Sword-hilts, Wrought Plate, and other Silver Manufactures made within this Kingdom, being of the Fineness of Eleven Ounces and Ten Penny-weight to every Pound Troy, and so proportionably for a greater or lesser weight, according to the Rules prescribed in the said last recited Act, as shall be yearly allowed by the Commissioners of his Majesties Customs for the time being, or any Three of them; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Watches, Sword-hilts, or other Silver Manufacture, (being of the fineness of 11 oz. 10 d. weight) may be exported, as the Commissioners shall yearly allow.

II. And whereas great quantities of empty Boxes, Cases, and Dial-plates for Clocks and Watches have been exported without their Movements, and in foreign parts made up with bad Movements, and thereon some London Watchmakers Names engraven, and so are sold abroad for English Work; and also there hath been the like ill Practices in England, by divers Persons, as well by some professing the Art of Clock and Watch-making, as others ignorant therein, in putting counterfeit Names, as also the Names of the most known London Watch-makers, on their bad Clocks and Watches, to the great prejudice of the Buyers, and disreputation of the said Art at home and abroad: For preventing therefore of all such ill Practices for the future, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Person or Persons whatsoever shall, after the said Four and twentieth day of June, export or send, or endeavour to export or send out of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, any outward or inward Box, Case or Dial-plate of Gold, Silver, Brass, or other Metal, for Clock or Watch, without the Movement, in or with every such Box, Case or Dial-plate, made up fit for use, with the Clock or Watchmakers Name engraven thereon; Nor any Person whatsoever, after the said Four and twentieth day of June, shall make up, or cause to be made up, any Clock or Watch without engraving, or putting, or causing to be engraven or put, his or her own Name and Place of Abode or Freedom, and no other Name or Place, on every Clock or Watch he or she shall so make up or cause to be made up, under the Penalty of forfeiting every such empty Box, Case and Dial-plate, Clock and Watch not made up and engraven, as aforesaid, and also for each and every of such Offence the Sum of Twenty pounds, One moiety whereof to be

XV. And whereas the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise to take care of the Duties on Imported Salt, and to prevent Frauds in the undue obtaining Debentures for Drawbacks and Allowances out of the said Duties, are not, by any of the Laws relating to the said Duties, sufficiently empowered to go on board Ships and Cessels for that purpose, although the Duties on Salt are under the Management of the said Commissioners and their Officers: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from henceforth it shall and may be Lawful to and for the Officers appointed by the Commissioners of Excise for the said Duties on Salt, from time to time, to go on board all Ships Importing or Exporting any Salt or Fish, and to continue on board such Ships, to take an Account of such Salt and Fish, and see the same Weighed, Landed or Exported; and if any Person or Persons shall obstruct or hinder any of the said Officers in performance of their Duties aforesaid, then, and in every such case, the Person offending therein shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

to the Officers of Salt-Duty to

XVI. And whereas her Majesties Duties on Salt are much lessened by the Exportation of great Quantities of Fish, in regard the Exporters thereof, after the same are carried out of Port, and Allowances, or Debentures for Allowances out of the Duties on Salt had or obtained on such Exportation, do frequently bring back such Fish into Port, and Re-export the same, and obtain a Second or more Allowances for the very same Fish: For remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and two, it shall and may be Lawful for the Officers for the said Duties on Salt, in the several and respective parts of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, and before the same shall be laid on board for Exportation, to cut off part of the Tail of every such Codfish, Ling or Hake, before the same shall be so exported, to the intent it may be known that such Codfish, Ling or Hake hath been so exported, and Allowances obtained on Exportation thereof, in case the same shall be re-

XX. And whereas the Allowances given by the several Acts relating to the Duties on Salt, upon the Exportation of Codfish, Ling and Hake, therein mentioned; do much exceed the Duty of the Salt usually employed in the Curing the same, so that many Persons, for the sake of the said Allowances only, do Export such Fish not duly Cured, and Fish of very small size, not having a due quantity of Salt made use of in Curing the same, which is not only a Prejudice to her Majesty in her said Duties on Salt, but also a great Disparagement to the Trade of English Fish in Foreign Markets : Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in lieu of the several Allowances given out of the said Duties on Salt, by the Acts relating to the same, upon the Exportation of any Codfish, Ling or Hake, there shall be allowed and paid the several and respective Sums herein after mentioned, for the several and respective Sorts of Codfish, Ling or Hake herein after mentioned, which shall be Exported from any Port or Place in England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from and after the said Four and twentieth day of June ; That is to say :

Codfish, &c. of 18 Inches, 25 s. per 100.

several Acts relating to the said Duties, and doing and performing such other Matters and Things, as by the said former Acts, and this present Act, are required and prescribed, in order to the obtaining such Allowances.

XXIV. Prohibited always, and it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any of the said Duties on Salt shall cease, determine or be redeemed by Parliament, then, and in any of the said cases, the said Allowances upon Exportation of Codfish, Ling or Hake, hereby settled, shall be lessened in proportion to the Duties on Salt that shall so cease, determine, or be redeemed.

No Allowance for Fish not

Whereas great quantities of English Corn, Grain, Meal, and other Goods, which may lawfully be Exported, and for which no Duties are payable to her Majesty upon Exportation thereof, are daily brought in Hoys, and other Vessels of the City of London, from the Counties of Kent and Essex: And whereas the Masters of such Hoys and Vessels employed in the Carriage of such Goods, have of late been put to unreasonable and unnecessary Charges and Trouble, by certain Officers of her Majesties Customs, who for their own Profit and Lucre have required and exacted great Fees for Transfers and Coquets, to the great Discouragement of the Country Farmers, and Oppression of the said Hoymen: For Remedy whereof, Be it therefore Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the Tenth day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and two, no Coquet or Coquets, or Bonds thereon, shall be required by any Officer of the Customs, or others, of or from any such Master or Owner of such Hoys or Vessels, carrying or conveying such Goods, as aforesaid, to or from any place within the Port of London; that is to say, from London-Bridge unto the supposed right Line from the Promontary or Point called, The North Foreland in the County of Kent, unto the Promontary or Point called, The Naes, including so much of the Ports of Sandwich and Ipswich, and the Members thereof, as are within the said Limits,

An Act for ascertaining the Rates of Foreign Coins in her Majesties Plantations in America.

Preamble.

Whereas for remedying the Inconveniencies which had arisen from the different Rates at which the same Species of Foreign Silver Coins did pass in her Majesties several Colonies and Plantations in America, her most Excellent Majesty has thought fit by her Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Eighteenth day of June, One thousand seven hundred and four, and in the Third Year of her Reign, to settle and ascertain the Currency of Foreign Coins in her said Colonies and Plantations, in the manner and words following:

Proclamation
for ascertaining the Currency of Foreign Coins in America.

WE having had under Our Consideration the different Rates at which the same Species of Foreign Coins do pass in Our several Colonies and Plantations in America, and the Inconveniencies thereof, by the indirect Practice of drawing the Money from one Plantation to another, to the great Prejudice of the Trade of Our Subjects; and being sensible, that the same cannot be otherwise remedied, than by reducing of all Foreign Coins to the same Current Rate within all Our Dominions in America; and the Principal Officers of Our Mint having laid before Us a Table of the Value of the several Foreign Coins which usually pass in Payments in Our said Plantations, according to their Weight, and the Assays made of them in Our Mint, thereby shewing the full Proportion which each Coin ought to have to the other, which is as followeth, viz. Sevill Pieces of Eight, Old Plate, Seventeen Penny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; Sevill Pieces of Eight, New Plate, Fourteen Penny-weight, Three Shillings Seven Pence One Farthing; Mexico Pieces of Eight, Seventeen Penny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; Pillar Pieces of Eight, Seventeen Penny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence Three Farthings; Peru Pieces of Eight, Old Plate, Seventeen Penny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Five Pence, or thereabouts; Cross Dollars, Eighteen Penny-weight, Four Shillings and Four Pence Three Farthings; Ducatoons of Flanders, Twenty Penny-weight and Twenty one Grains, Five Shillings and Six Pence; Ecu's of France, or Silver Lewis, Seventeen Penny-weight Twelve Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence, Crusadoes of Portugal, Eleven Penny-weight Four Grains, Two Shillings and Ten Pence One Farthing; Three Gilder Pieces of Holland, Twenty Penny-weight and Seven Grains, Five Shillings and Two Pence One Farthing; Old Rix Dollars of the Empire, Eighteen Penny-weight and Ten Grains, Four Shillings and Six Pence; The Halfs, Quarters and other parts in Proportion to their Denominations, and Light Pieces in Proportion to their Weight: We have therefore thought fit, for remedying the said Inconveniencies, by the Advice of Our Council, to Publish and Declare, That from and after the First day of January next ensuing the Date hereof, no Sevill, Pillar, or Mexico Pieces of Eight, though of the full Weight of Seventeen Penny-weight and an half, shall be accounted, received, taken, or paid within any of Our said Colonies or Plantations, as well well those under Proprietors and Charters, as under our immediate Commission and Government, at above the Rate of Six Shillings per Piece Current Money, for the Discharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be made after the said First day of January next; the Halfs, Quarters, and other lesser Pieces of the same Coins to be accounted, received, taken, or paid in the same Proportion: And the Currency of all Pieces of Eight of Peru, Dollars, and other Foreign Species of Silver Coins, whether of the same or Basfer Alloy, shall, after the said First day of January next, stand Regulated, according to their Weight and Fineness, according and in Proportion to the Rate before limited and set for the Pieces of Eight of Sevill, Pillar, and Mexico; So that no Foreign Silver Coin of any sort be permitted to exceed the same Proportion upon any Account whatsoever. And we do hereby Require and Command all Our Governors, Lieutenant-Governors, Magistrates, Officers, and all other Our good Subjects, within Our said Colonies and Plantations, to observe and obey Our Directions herein, as they tender Our Displeasure.

II. And whereas notwithstanding the said Proclamation, the same indirect Practices as are therein mentioned, are still carried on within some of the said Colonies or Plantations, and the Money thereby drawn from one Plantation to another, in prejudice of the Trade of her Majesties Subjects; Wherefore for the better enforcing the due Execution of her Majesties said Proclamation throughout all the said Colonies and Plantations, and for the more effectual remedying the said Inconveniencies thereby intended to be remedied, Be it Enacted by the Queens most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Person within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, as well those under Proprietors and Charters, as under her Majesties immediate Commission and Government, shall, after the First day of May, which shall be in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and nine, for the Discharge of any Contracts or Bargains to be thereafter made, account, receive, take or pay any of the several Species of Foreign Silver Coins mentioned in the before recited Proclamation, at any greater or higher Rate than at which the same is thereby regulated, settled and allowed, to be accounted, received, taken or paid, every such Person so accounting, receiving, taking or paying the same contrary to the Directions therein contained, shall suffer Six Months Imprisonment, without Bail or Mainprize; any Law, Custom, or Usage in any of the said Colonies or Plantations to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding; and shall likewise forfeit the Sum of Ten Pounds for every such Offence, One moiety thereof to her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, the other moiety to such Person or Persons as shall sue for the same, to be recovered with full Costs of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Justice within any of the said Plantations, or in any of the Courts of Justice of the Charter or Proprietary Governments where such Offence shall be committed.

For enforcing the due Execution of the Proclamation,

Persons paying or receiving any Foreign Silver Coins at a higher Rate than is regulated, to suffer Six Months Imprisonment, and forfeit to L.

III. Provided nevertheless, and it is hereby Declared, That nothing in the before recited Proclamation, or in this Act contained, shall extend, or be construed to compel any Person to receive any of the said Species of Foreign Silver Coins, at the respective Rates in the said Proclamation mentioned.

Provida.

IV. Provided also, and it is hereby further Declared, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to restrain her Majesty from regulating, and settling the several Rates of the said Species of Foreign Silver Coins within any of the said Colonies or Plantations, in such other Manner, and according to such other Rates and Proportions as her Majesty by her Royal Proclamation for that purpose to be issued, shall from time to time judge proper and necessary, or from giving her Royal Assent to any Law hereafter to be made in any of the said Colonies or Plantations, Queen may regulate the several Species hereafter, in such other manner as she shall judge necessary.

ons, for settling and ascertaining the Current Rates of such Coins within the said Colonies or Plantations; but that such further Regulations may be made, and such Assent given, in as full and ample manner, to all intents and purposes, as the same might have been done in case this Act had not been made, and no otherwise; any thing herein before contained to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

How to be levied.

VII. And whereas the said Impositions on Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, which were first granted to King James the Second, in the First Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East-India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, in the Second Year of their Reign, and the said Additional Impositions, which were first granted to them in the Fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale-fins imported, which were granted to his said late Majesty King William in the Ninth Year of his Reign, were by several subsequent Acts of Parliament continued, (with some Exceptions and Alterations) as aforesaid, until the First day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, in the manner therein mentioned, and are thereby made subject and liable (together with such other Duties as are therein expressed) to the Satisfaction of several Principal Sums which were borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed upon those Acts respectively, and the Interest due, and to be due for the same, (which Principal and Interest are to be duly paid off and discharged in the first place:) Now it is hereby further Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and immediately after the time that all the Principal and Interest-Duties, which by the said former Acts, or any of them, are charged or chargeable on the several Impositions and Duties last particularly mentioned, (joynly with other Duties) as aforesaid, shall be fully paid off and satisfied according to the true meaning of the said former Acts, or that sufficient Money shall be reserved in the Exchequer for that purpose, then all the Duties which from thenceforth shall arise by the said Impositions upon Wines, Vinegar and Tobacco, which were first granted to King James the Second in the First Year of his Reign, and the said Impositions on East-India Goods, and other Goods charged therewith, which were first granted to their late Majesties King William and Queen Mary, in the Second Year of their Reign, and the said Additional Impositions which were first granted to them in the Fourth Year of their Reign, and the said Duties on Whale-fins imported, which were granted to his late Majesty King William in the Ninth Year of his Reign, for the remainders of the Terms formerly granted, and therein then to come and unexpired (except the necessary Charges of raising, levying, collecting and accounting for the same) shall from time to time, be paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer distinctly, for the purposes in this Act expressed, and for no other use, intent or purpose whatsoever.

After the Principal, &c. of the former Acts are discharged, the several Duties appropriated for the Uses of this Act.

XV. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Sixth Year of her Majesties Reign, [Intituled, An Act for continuing several Duties therein mentioned upon Coffee, Chocolate, Spices, Pictures, and Muslins, and Additional Duties upon several of the said Commodities, and certain Duties upon Callicoes, China-Wares, and Drugs, and for continuing the Duties called the Two thirds Subsidies of Tonnage and Poundage, for preserving the Publick Credit; and for ascertaining the Duties of Coals exported to Foreign Parts; and for securing the Credit of the Bank of England; and for passing several Accounts of Taxes raised in the County of Monmouth; and for promoting the Consumption of such Tobacco as shall have paid her Majesties Duties] It is amongst other things Enacted, That all Coals exported beyond the Seas, from and after the end of the then present Session of Parliament, until the Twenty fifth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and sixteen, and from thence to the end of the then next Session of Parliament, from Great Britain in British Bottoms, shall only pay Three Shillings the Chalders, and after that rate for greater or lesser quantities; any former Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding, as by the same Act more at large may appear: And whereas the said Duty is a great hindrance to the British Navigation, and lessens the Exportation of Coals from Great Britain to Parts beyond the Seas; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of December, in the Year One thousand seven hundred and ten, the said Duty of Three Shillings per Chalder shall cease, and be no longer paid; any thing in the said Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

XVI. And whereas by the Laws of this Realm, every Person importing Tobacco, and other Foreign Goods, from any Part of Great Britain, is entitled to a Drawback of part of the Duties paid or secured at the Importation thereof; and it hath been found by Experience, that great quantities of such Tobacco and other Foreign Goods, after they have been shipped for Exportation, have been privately re-landed in this Realm; and the Remedies already provided by Law, have not been sufficient to obviate a Practice so very Prejudicial to her Majesties Revenue, and to all fair and honest Traders in such Goods: For the better Prevention whereof for the future, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Seven and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, in case any Tobacco, or other Foreign Goods, contained or specified in any Certificate, whereupon any such Drawback is to be made, or whereupon any Debenture is to be made forth for any such Drawback, shall not be really and bona fide shipped and exported (the danger of the Seas and Enemies excepted) or shall be landed again in any Part of Great Britain, unless in case of distress to save the Goods from perishing, which shall be presently made known to the Person or Persons which are or shall be appointed by her Majesty to manage her Customs, or Principal Officers of the Port; then not only all such Tobacco and other Certificate-Goods shall be forfeited and lost, but also the Person or Persons (being the Exporters, or any others) who shall bring back or cause, or procure to be re-landed such Tobacco, and other Certificate-Goods, or any of them, in any Part of Great Britain, or be assisting, or otherwise concerned in the unshipping the same, or to whose hands the same shall knowingly come, after the unshipping thereof, or by whose Privy, Knowledge or Direction the said Tobacco and other Goods, or any part thereof, shall be so re-landed, shall forfeit double the amount of the said Drawback for such Goods, together with the Vessels and Boats, and all the Horses or other Cattle and Carriages whatsoever, made use of in the Landing, Removing, Carriage or Conveyance of the same; One moiety of all which Penalties or Forfeitures shall be to the Use of her Majesty, and the other Moiety to him or them that shall inform, seize, or sue for the same, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of her Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster, or in the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, at any time or times within five Years after the Offence shall be committed; wherein no Essoign, Protection or Wager of Law shall be allowed.

XVII. And it is hereby Enacted, That if any Officer of the Customs shall connive or assist in any Fraud, relating to such Certificate Goods, as aforesaid, such Officer (over and above any other Penalties, to which he is or may be liable by this or any other Act, shall forfeit his Office, and be rendered incapable of serving her Majesty for the future, and suffer Six Months Imprisonment without Bail or Mainprize; and if any Master, Commander, or other Person belonging to any Ship or Vessel, shall assist in or connive at the fraudulent landing any such Certificate-Goods, as aforesaid, he, she or they (over and above all other Penalties provided by this, or any other Act or Acts now in force) shall for every such Offence suffer Imprisonment by the space of Six Months, without Bail or Mainprize.

No Debenture for Tobacco to Ireland, till a Certificate from the Collector, &c. in Ireland, of the landing the same there.

XVIII. And for preventing the running of Tobacco into this Kingdom, under pretence of exporting the same to Ireland; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Debenture shall be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported from any Port of Great Britain, to the Kingdom of Ireland, until a Certificate shall be produced under the Hands and Seals of the Collector, Comptroller and Surveyor of the Customs, of any Port in Ireland, or any Two of them, where such Goods shall be landed, testifying the landing thereof, (the danger of the Seas, or Enemies excepted) any any Law to the contrary notwithstanding; which Certificate the Collector, Comptroller and Searcher of the Customs, or any Two of them, of each Port in Ireland, are impowered and required to deliver forthwith, upon the Discharge of such Tobacco, and not to take above One Shilling Fee for making out and delivery of such Certificate. Fee 1 s.

XIX. And as a further Security of her Majesties Revenues, both in Great Britain and Ireland; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Master of every Ship carrying such Certificate-Goods to Ireland, shall demand and take from the Collector of every respective Port of Great Britain, a Duplicate of his Content in writing, certified under the Hand and Seal of the Collector and Comptroller of such Port (which said Duplicate the Collector and Comptroller of each Port in Great Britain are hereby required to deliver to every Master, without Fee or Reward) and such Master shall be obliged to deliver such Duplicate to the Officers of the Customs in Ireland on his Arrival, before he be permitted to land such Goods there. And whereas an illegal Trade is usually carried on in small Vessels or Boats; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Debenture shall be made forth, nor any Drawback be paid or allowed for any Tobacco exported to any Place, in any Ship or Vessel under the Burthen of Twenty Tuns; any Law, Statute or Usage to the contrary notwithstanding. No Debentures for Tobacco exported in any Ship under 20 Tuns.

XXI. And whereas by an Exception or Clause contained in an Act made in the Third Year of her Majesties Reign [intituled, An Act for granting to her Majesty a further Subsidy on Wines and Merchandizes imported] It was provided, That such Cozants as should be imported in English-built Shipping, navigated according to Law, should be exempted from paying the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the said Act: And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the Fourth Year of her Majesties Reign, for continuing an Additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage; It was amongst other things Enacted and Declared, That the Exception contained in the aforesaid Act, whereby Cozants imported in English-built Shipping, navigated according to Law, were exempted from the said Duty, should be extended to such Cozants as after the five and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and six, should be imported in Ships belonging to any of the Subjects of the Republick of Venice, so that they also should be exempted from Payment of the Two thirds Subsidy granted by the aforesaid Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas by an Act made in the Sixth Year of her Majesties Reign, for continuing the several Duties therein mentioned, the said Two thirds Subsidies were continued for Three Years, from the Seventh day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eight, with an Exception as to Cozants imported in English-built Shipping, according to the said Act, of the Third Year of her Majesties Reign, and no notice is taken of the Explanation thereof in the said Act of the Fourth of her Majesties Reign, as to Venetian-Shipping also, whereby some doubts have arisen, whether Cozants imported in Venetian-Shipping ought to be exempted from the Continuation of the Two thirds Subsidy, according to the Provision before recited in the said Act of the Fourth Year of her Majesties Reign, extending the Exemption to them: For preventing which doubts, and in regard it would be very hard to restrain the Subjects of Venice from importing the Goods of their own Growth in their own Shipping; Be it therefore Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Clause in the Act of the Fourth Year of the Queens Reign, for exempting Cozants imported in Venetian-Shipping from paying the Duty of Two thirds Subsidy, was intended, and is to be understood, from the time of passing the same Act, to be a perpetual Clause attending the Continuation of that Duty, and not limited unto the First Grant thereof; any thing in the said Act of the Sixth, or in any other subsequent Act to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding. Cozants imported in Venetian Ships subject to 4 s. c. 6.

XXII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Second and Third Year of the Reign of her present Majesty our most Gracious Sovereign Lady Queen Anne [Intituled, An: A. cap. 9. An Act for granting to her Majesty an Additional Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage for Three Years, and for laying a further Duty upon French Wines condemned as lawful Prize, and for ascertaining the Value of unrarred Goods imported from the East-Indies] It is therein, amongst other things, Enacted, That all English Merchants should, from and after the Eighth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and three, have Eighteen Months time allowed them from the Entry inwards for the Exportation of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Buggles, Cast and Bar Iron, Dying-Wood, Dying-Mares, and Drugs, and should have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportations, as if the same had been exported within Twelve Months: And whereas the time allowed to Foreigners for Exportation of such Goods is limited to Nine Months, which by experience is found to be too short, and very inconvenient to Trade: Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Foreign Merchants, or all British Merchants commissioned by them, shall from and after the Seven and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, have fifteen Months time from the Entry inwards of all Tobacco, Sugar, Ginger, Pepper, Buggles, Cast and Bar Iron, Dying-Wood, Dying-Mares, and Drugs (already imported or to be imported) allowed them to export the same, and shall have the like Benefit and Drawback by such Exportation, as if the same had been exported within Nine Months, according to the Second Rule in the Book of Rates, the said Rule, or any other Law or Custom now in force relating thereto notwithstanding: Provided Certificates be taken forth, and Oath made, and all other Requisites performed, according to the Laws now in being.

Foreign Merchants to have 15 Months time for Exportation of certain Foreign Goods.

Clause to limit a time for Prosecutions upon Plantation-Bonds:

XXIII. And whereas the Laws of this Realm do require, That for Ships trading to or in her Majesties Plantations, lading Sugars and other enumerated Commodities there, Bonds be given which are commonly called Plantation-Bonds, with Condition to bring the same Goods to Great Britain, or to some other of her Majesties Plantations, or to that effect: Now to prevent the Discouragements which Persons trading to and from the said Plantations do or may lie under by the said Bonds lying out against them, although the Conditions thereof are or shall have been performed: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the said Plantation-Bonds as have been entered into at any time or times before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the hands of any of her Majesties Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, then such of the said Plantation-Bonds, so already entered into, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void: and as to such Plantation-Bonds as shall be entered into, after the said Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the Dates thereof; or if upon such Prosecution as is last mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty within the space of Two Years after the same Prosecution commenced, then every such Plantation-Bond, which shall hereafter be entered into, as aforesaid (in default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the times before limited) shall also be void: And all the said Plantation-Bonds so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

If such Bonds be not prosecuted in 3 Years from the Date, and Judgment obtained in 2 Years more, the Bonds to be void.

XXIV. And whereas by an Act made in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of his said late Majesty King William the Third [Intituled, An Act for the more Effectual employing the Poor, by encouraging the Manufactures of this Kingdom] upon the Exportation of wrought Silks, and other Commodities therein mentioned, Security is to be taken in the manner therein express: Now in regard it may happen some of these Goods may be vendid in Foreign Parts, from which no Certificate can be produced, as the said Act requires, to discharge the Security last mentioned, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That as to such of the Securities last mentioned, as have been entred into at any time or times, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, and are now remaining in the hands of any of her Majesties Officers, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and thirteen, or if upon such Prosecution, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, before the Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and fifteen, then such of the said Securities to already entred into upon Exportation of such Silks, and other Commodities last mentioned, shall (for want of such Prosecution or Judgment) be void; and as to such Securities as shall be entred into, after the said Eight and twentieth day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ten, upon Exportation of such wrought Silks, and other Commodities as are last mentioned, in case there shall be no Prosecution for some Breach, or Non-performance of the respective Conditions thereof, within Three Years after the dates thereof; or if upon such Prosecution as is last mentioned, Judgment be not obtained for her Majesty, within the space of Two Years after the same Prosecution commenced, then every such Security relating to wrought Silks, or such other Goods as are last mentioned, which shall hereafter be entred into, as aforesaid, (in default of such Prosecution to be commenced, and Judgment to be obtained within the times before limited) shall also be void: And all such Securities so made void by this Act, shall be delivered up by the respective Officers, having the same in their keeping, to be cancelled without Fee or Reward.

Bonds for East-India wrought Silk, and other Commodities prohibited to be worn here, if not prosecuted in 3 Years, and Judgment obtained in 2 Years more, void.

XXV. And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer of her Majesties Revenue, having the Custody of any of the Bonds by this Act required to be delivered up to be cancelled, as aforesaid, shall, upon reasonable Demand refuse or neglect to deliver up such Bonds, according to the purpose and true meaning of this Act, then the Officer so offending, shall for every such Offence, be, and is hereby made liable to answer to the Party grieved, all his Damages, together with treble Costs of Suit.

Officer not delivering up such Bonds on demand to pay Damages, and treble Costs.

XXVI. And in regard the Subsidy of Tonnage and Poundage on Merchandizes exported, is to determin from and after the Last day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ten, but it is nevertheless necessary, that the respective Officers of the Customs, as well outwards as inwards, do continue to perform the Duties of their respective Offices, as well to prevent frauds in relation to the Drawbacks upon Certificate-Goods, as to hinder the Exportation of Goods prohibited to be exported, and for other Causes wherein the publick Service is or may be concerned; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Fees of the Officers of the Customs, as well in the Port of London, as in other Ports of Great Britain, which were established or allowed by the Act of Tonnage and Poundage, made in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of King Charles the Second, or by any of the Rules annexed thereunto, or by any Act or Acts of Parliament since made, touching any such Fees, and which may lawfully be taken by any such Officers, or their Deputies, from any her Majesties Subjects or Strangers, until the first day of August, One thousand seven hundred and ten, for any Cogs, Quets, Certificates, Entries, Clearings, Bonds, Debentures, Endowments, Sufferances, Transits, Let-Passes, Warrants, and other Matters and Things relating to the Duties of their respective respective Offices, shall after the Last day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ten, continue and be paid and payable for the same, until the said Fees, or any of them, shall be altered by the Commons of Great Britain in Parliament, as fully as if the said Fees, or any Table or Tables thereof formerly allowed, were particularly set down, or referred to in the Body of this Act; the Determination of the said Subsidy outwards, or any Act or Acts of Parliament, or other Matter or Thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Officer imbezilling any Goods, forfeits double the Value with full Costs.

XXVII. And be it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Officer or Officers of the Customs, shall, contrary to his Duty, Imbezill any Goods or Merchandizes lodged in any Warehouse in his or their Custody or Possession, such Officer and Officers, for every such Offence, shall forfeit double the Value of the Goods so imbezilled, to the Parties grieved, with full Costs, to be recovered as other Penalties by this Act are Recoverable.
